THE EXHIBITS AT THE FAIR

WHAT IS PUT FORTH TO BE SEEN

Exhibit Hall a Very Attractive Place—Musical Instruments, Road Vehicles, Poultry and Dog Shows, the Midway and the "Hoofy" Horse, of Guilford—The Second Floor of the Hall is the Most Attractive Place of All—The Educational Exhibit.

The very inclement weather yesterday considerably delayed the work of private exhibitors at the Fair grounds and it was not until late in the afternoon, when a welcome rift in the clouds of the west let the setting sun shine through and gave hope of a fair tomorrow, that an outsider could form a definite idea of what the interior of the big exhibit hall would look like when the Fair was formally opened. By that time, however, the large number of ladies, gentlemen and boys, who had been diligently at work since noon, began to see the results of their work, and to look pleased with it. The upper floor of the big building had been transformed into a scene of attractiveness—booths had been made and covered with bunting, and the walls all 'round the hall had been bedecked with fine needle work and pretty pictures.

The second floor of the exhiblt hall is, to the eye, the most attractive place at the Fair. The long list of exhibits are arranged in the best of taste and order, and reflects great credit upon those who make them. Entering the large door near the western end of the building and turning to the right, one finds himself in the midst of the horticultural and floricultural exhibits, made by a number of people. The wall here is covered with beautiful paintings and a large and interesting display of photographs, the latter belonging to Mrs. Charles D. Benbow, of Pinehurst. The south side of the room is taken up by an endless variety of fine needle work, and by various manufacturing and mercantile exhibits.

In the eastern end of the room, Greensboro Female College, State Normal and Industrial College and Guilford College have creditable booths, the last mentioned institution having drawn largely on its museum for a number of interesting articles.

On the north side of the room, the Greensboro Fire Company has an exhibit; the Moore Optical and Talking Machine Company show a large variety of goods in their line; and then comes the pantry exhibit, in which the house-wife shows her skill. Here the Guilford woman shows that, for dainty cooking, she cannot be surpassed.

The middle section of the room contains manufacturing, mercantile and other exhibits. Some of the exhibitors are: Chas. M. Steiff Piano Company, Chas. R. Thomas, agent; L. Richardson Drug Company; A. D. Jones & Company; musical instruments; Simpson-Shields Shoe Company; Southern Sweet Gum Company; T. C. Williams Tobacco Company, Richmond, Va.; Goose Greese Liniment Company, R. W. Wingate, sewing machines; W. A. Watson, Roller Mills Company; Southern Import & Commission Company, house furnishing goods; Royall & Borden Furniture Company, Goldsboro. The Greensboro W. C. T. Unions also have a booth in this section.

The exhibits on the ground floor are large and interesting. The dog show occupies the western end. Next to it is the poultry exhibit. In the other end, the Tar Heel Liniment Company and the Pomona Terra Cotta Company have attractive displays. The remainder of the space is occupied by exhibits of buggies, carriages, wagons, harness, machinery, farm machinery, etc. some of the exhibitors being: Columbus Buggy Company, Tatum and Taylor agents; J. I. Nissen, wagons, and Babcock Buggy Company, Newell & Petty agents; High Point Machine Works. The J. Van Linley and Jno. A. Young Nursery Companies have large and artistic exhibits just outside the building.

The pens and stables for the exhibition of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs are just east of Exhibit Hall, near the edge of the Fair grounds. A lot of fine stock was placed in these yesterday.

Along the walk from Exhibit Hall to the grand stand, some two hundred yards directly south, is the Midway. This comprises a number of attractions, among them being: Spark's circus; Gentry's animal show, Dr. Griffith's "hoofy" horse, and several other minor shows.

The Winston Registrars Will Not be Tried Until the April Term of Federal Court.

The Winston registration cases have been postponed until the second Monday of the next term of Federal Court, which will convene on the first Monday in April.

When the witnesses against Mr. J. T. Thompson had been called late yesterday afternoon Mr. Cyrus B. Watson, of counsel for the defense, arose and stated that inasmuch as several new counts had been added to the bill of indictment, and on account of the failure to secure several material witnesses, a continuance would be asked for. Mr. Hunter Wall, the other gentleman indicted, was confined to his bed by sickness, and a certificate from his physician was presented, stating that he was unable to attend to any business.

In consideration of these facts, Judge Boyd ordered the cases continued. The action of the court in the matter is generally commended, the consensus of opinion being that it was the only just and wise course to pursue.

One of the State's Leading Cities.

Raleigh Times.

This is the week of Greensboro's big Central Carolina Fair, and crowds will pour into the "City of Flowers." The people will have an opportunity to observe the great progress made by our prosperous neighbor, which has in a few years become one of the State's leading cities. Its manufacturing industries and wholesale trade are of considerable importance and are steadily growing. The Times hopes the Central Carolina Fair may be all that its friends hope for it.

SPENT THE NIGHT IN JAIL.

A Negro Borrows a Rubber Coat and is Arrested for a Thief.

Through a little indiscretion a negro employed by Mr. W. R. Pleasant spent last night in jail. It seems that Mr. Pleasant had a rubber coat that belonged to the fire department and which he had allowed the negro to wear on several occasions. Yesterday the man wore it off without the knowledge or consent of Mr. Pleasant, who thought it had been stolen and reported the matter to the police officers.

A fireman saw the negro with the coat, and recognizing it as the property of the fire department, had him arrested. This morning Mr. Pleasant came down and straightened the matter out, when the prisoner was released. It is fair to presume that the negro will ask permission the next time he wishes to borrow the coat.

Thought Burglars Were About.

Early this morning residents in that section of town were awakened by an unearthly yelling at a house down on Greene street. The noise seemed to be that of a woman in great distress, and those who heard it thought at once of burglars. Several people in the neighborhood got up to make an investigation, when it was learned that the commotion was being caused by some children who had risen rather early.

"Broad Rock" in Town.

Mr. W. J. Carter, of the Richmond Times, known all over the South as "Broad Rock," arrived in the city last night to attend the Fair. The management has secured his services as starter for all the races.

Mr. Carter is one of the most enthusiastic and best posted horsemen in the country.

Coming to the Fair.

Charlotte Observer.

Mrs. J. W. Prevost, willl leave this morning for Greensboro, to visit friends and attend the Central Carolina Fair.

Mrs. T. T. Smith and daughter, Miss Frances, have gone to Greensboro to attend the Fair.

Dr. Wyche Buys a Home,

Dr. J. E. Wyche has purchased what is known as the Dillard place, on West Gaston street, adjoining the property of Mr. J. Willie Smith, from whom the purchase was made. It is the intention of the new owner to improve the property.

The place is one of the most desirable locations for a home in Greensboro. The place is large and admirably situated.

THE FAIR OPENING POSTPONED

INCLEMENT WEATHER THE CAUSE.

The Great Fair Will Open Tomorrow Morning—Full Exhibits in All Departments—The Best Collection of Race Horses Seen in North Carolina for a Number of Years—Will Furnish Spirited Contests—The Track Expected to be in Good Condition Tomorrow—Well Known Horsemen Here.

The Central Carolina Fair will open at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning—a day late, but none the less interesting for that. The postponement was made necessary on account of the inclemency of the weather.

All day yesterday it looked as if the weather today would be disagreeable, but it cleared up late in the afternoon, just in time for a beautiful sunset. In addition to this, the weather man promised to be good, and everybody was hopeful of glorious weather for the remainder of the week. "But the best laid plans of mice and men," etc. During the night it rained, the performance being repeated by the elements this morning.

A meeting of the executive committee was called and the public notified that the opening of the Fair had been postponed until tomorrow, when today's program will be carried out.

It may be for the best that the opening was postponed, for many of the exhibits did not come in until last night and today. This morning three car loads of exhibits from Gen. Julian S. Carr's Occoneechee farm, near Hillsboro, were unloaded. All the space has been taken and there will be full exhibits in all departments.

SOMETHING OF THE HORSES.

Mr. W. J. Carter, of the Richmond Times, the official starter of the all the races, and who is one of the best judges of horseflesh in the country, says the race horses quartered at the Fair grounds are probably the best seen in North Carolina for a number of years, or certainly since the famous performers, John R. Gentry, 2:00½; Joe Patchen, 2:01½; Baronet, 2:11½; Albert C., 2:16½, and others started at Reidsville in 1895. The Greensboro races are the first of the North Carolina circuit, and from here the horses go to Burlington, Raleigh, Winston, Weldon and Newbern.

Doubtless the fine collection of horses here is due to the efforts of Secretary Walsh, who is an experienced horseman, and well known to breeders and owners of both thoroughbreds and trotters. The track was in excellent shape until yesterday, when soaked by the heavy rains; in fact, it is doubtful if any faster new course has ever been seen in the State. However, with clear weather today the horses will start tomorrow, and while the track may be a trifle heavy and interfere with fast time, still some good racing may be seen. The class of horses entered should furnish some spirited contests. Some well known trainers and drivers are at the track with their stables. Geo. F. Dyer, of Winston, is there with Queen Bess, the fast roan mare owned by P. H. Lybrook; El Modello; Rowdy Bob, 2:30; the fast pacer Princetell and others. Dyer developed Loy Phillips, 2 19½; Laura D., 2 22½, and others of note. J. H. Ewalt, of this city, has the grand looking big bay pacer Doug. Thomas, Bill Arp, and two or three more fast ones.

W. L. Bass, who hails from Richmond, Va., is on the grounds with Marie, by Jolly Friar; the elegantly bred mare Serpentine, by Mambrino Bay, and the fast pacing mare, Joyful Maiden, who won at Norfolk last week. Bass is in his element when on North Carolina soil, as during recent years he has landed a number of winners on track in the Old North State. Last fall he placed the State record at 2:17¼, in a red hot race at Raleigh with Firewood and won another fierce contest at Winston with the same horse one week later.

George M. Hardin, of Raleigh, who has been down the line of the Virginia, Maryland and Delaware circuit, has his stable here. It includes Rubico, 2.23½, J. S.; Billy Miller, by Patchen Wilkes, the sire of Joe Patchen, 2.01½; and the richly bred bay colt, Sweet Rector, bred by A. H. Moore, of Philadelphia. Some eight or ten years ago Mr. Moore paid $75,000 for Director, the sire of Sweet Rector. That good, honest horse Rubico, who has been a winner for two seasons, is by Pamlico and one of the handsomest of the get of that celebrated race horse.

Sam Hamlin has E. A. Woodell's stable, which includes the big, handsome bay stallion, Jay Boy, by Jay Bird, sire of the famous Allerton.

I. H. Farley, of Lynchburg, has Eda Leo, 2.22½, and others.

William Chatman, the Alamance Farm trainer, has Eliza Ingram, the chestnut mare, by John R. Gentry, out of Blandeth, the dam of Gov. Holt, 2.15, who will make her first start.

In addition to these, there are quite a number of others worthy of special mention and which will be commented on at another time.

The directors this afternoon decided to continue the Fair through Saturday, so there will be four days of it after all.

Says the Boer War Will Last Six Months Longer.

By Wire to The Telegram.

London, Oct. 9.—Pastor Von Brokhing, a Boer minister just arrived from Lynchburg, states that the war in South Africa will last six months longer if England refuses to grant independence to the Free State and the Transvaal.

CHINESE SURRENDERING.

Count Von Waldersee Orders a General Disarmament and Invites Authorities to Help.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Shanghai, Oct. 9.—Count Von Waldersee has ordered the general disarmament of the Chinese forces. Haldersee and the admirals have invited all the civil and military authorities near Pechili and within range of Tien-Tsin to make submission. Most of the Chinese officers are taking advantage of the invitation and are coming in.

HEADQUARTERS IN CHARLOTTE.

Carr's Friends are Becoming Zealous That Every Township in Mecklenburg Will be Organized—Simmons Men Follow Suit.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

Charlotte Oct. 8.—The Carr constituents at Charlotte have become so zealous in their fight that they have secured a room which will now constitute Carr headquarters. An effort will likely be made to organize every township in Mecklenburg, county both in the interests of Carr and Simmons.

The Henkle Craig-Brenizer damage suit case is still engaging the court and it will be Wednesday or Thursday before the case is concluded. The testimony today was of a technical nature.

Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, who is at the Church Home and Infirmary at Baltimore, it is stated, would have a very serious operation performed today—the removal of a nerve in the region of the eye.

The first brick in the new Presbyterian college building willl be laid tomorrow if the weather permits. Miss Fan Burwell, daughter of Judge Burwell, has been chosen to lay the first brick, a special program having been arranged.

From Far-off Minnesota.

Mr. S. E. Neeler, of Minneapolis, Minn., has heard of the splendid farming lands of Guilford and writes for further information with a view to making an investment. He will probably be in Greensboro soon. There is an abundance of room here for Mr. Neeler and others like him.

Schools Will Take Holiday.

Superintendent Grimsley announces that the City Public Schools will take holiday Thursday. The State Normal and Industrial College, and probably the Greensboro Female College, will observe the same time as a holiday. The young women of the two latter institutions will visit the Fair in a body.

Notice to Fair Marshals.

All the marshals for the Fair are requested to meet at the court house tomorrow morning promptly at 9:30 o'clock. Every marshal is urged to be on time.

President and Mrs. McKinley arrived in Washington this morning.

THE BOND ELECTION CARRIED

HIGH POINT TO HAVE WATERWORKS

After Two Unsuccessful Attempts, a Third Election Today Results in a Victory for the Bonds--The Proposition Was to Issue Bonds to the Amount of $50,000 for the Purpose of Installing a System of Waterworks--Another Indication of High Point's Forward Movement.

After two unsuccessful attempts, the people of High Point have at last voted to issue bonds to the amount of $50,000 for the purpose of putting in a system of waterworks to be owned and operated by the municipality. And thus does our thriving sister city go forward.

It has been apparent for some time, since the recent disastrous fire, in fact, that the proposition would be carried at today's election, and the result shows the prediction to have been well founded.

It required just 376 votes to carry the election, and before noon 327 of these had been cast, with only 8 votes against the proposition. Before 3 o'clock 457 votes had been cast for bonds, with 12 against. This was a majority of 48 of the registered votes, and there were still others to vote.

It is a matter of gratification to the wide-awake citizens of progressive High Point that the action of the citizens today makes it possible for the young city to go forward at a still greater pace.

WANT A YEAR'S AGREEMENT.

MINERS DETERMINED TO GET FIXED

At Friday's Meeting it Was Insisted That the Operators Bind Themselves to the Ten Per Cent. Income for a Definite Period--Big Meeting at Scranton Tomorrow—The Men Will be Left to Vot Freely Their Own Sentiment.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Hazleton, Oct. 9.—President Mitchell and other officials of the United Mine Workers left this morning for Shamokin, where a big labor demonstration takes place this afternoon. The party goes to Scranton tomorrow to remain until after the miner's convention adjourns.

President Mitchell says that in the convention neither he nor any other executive official will try to influence the voting one way or the other, the miners being left to themselves to decide.

At Wilkesbarre the mine strikers announced today that their delegates at Friday's meeting were instructed by nearly all unions to insist upon an agreement by the operatives to keep the ten per cent. increase in force for a period to be determined by the convention, probably one year.

PROGRESSIVE GREENSBORO.

Phenomenal Growth in Population and Business.

The Baltimore Sun devotes nearly two columns of space to a write-up of Greensboro and makes the following complimentary reference to the city in the editorial columns:

"One of the most progressive and prosperous cities in North Carolina is Greensboro, the county seat of the historic county of Guilford. It is situated on the main line of the Southern Railway, between Danville, Va., and Atlanta, Ga., and is a great centre of trade and traffic. Its growth in population and business within the past 15 years has been phenomenal. From a struggling town it has become a hustling city with many successful wholesale houses in various branches of trade and immense manufacturing establishments, giving employment to many hundreds of people. The country surrounding Greensboro is a fine farming section, with a thrifty and intelligent population. Its educational institutions are recognized as of a high order, and have patrons outside of the State, while its banking facilities are unsurpassed. Its citizens are public spirited, an evidence of which is given by the organization of the Carolina Central Fair Association, which will hold its first fair October 9 to 12, inclusive. It will be held in a spacious and beautiful park, immediately on the line of the Southern Railway, and the programme includes interesting racing events, for which many speedy horses have been entered."

Preacher Uses it in a Sermon on Christian Science—Col. Olds Contributes a Coincidence—Mr. Beckwith's Report from Randolph Glowing—Mr. Abrams' Sins Have Found Him Out and He Suffers the Consequence of Being Too Much Married.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Oct. 9.—John Abrams, a white man of this town, had the pleasure of facing two wives in a magistrate's court today. Ten years ago he married No. 1, and three years later tried to get a divorce from her, but failed. Last April he married No. 2, yesterday No. 1 sued for a divorce and in her complaint set forth the marriage to No. 2. This exposed a case of bigamy and Abrams was promptly arrested.

John A. Harrell, of the United States quartermaster's department, sent to his grand-mother here a handsome collection of Japanese photographs. The latter are in colors. They are of great beauty and would delight a North Carolina photographer. In Japan and in California the best photographing in colors is done.

Of all the Methodist Episcopal preachers in this conference who were alive in 1857, only one is now living, Rev. Levi Branson, of Raleigh.

B. C. Beckwith, Democratic nominee for elector in this district, has returned from Randolph county, where he last week made seven speeches and E. W. Pou, nominee for Congress, made five. Mr. Beckwith says that the Democrats will get as good a vote in Randolph in November as they got in August; that the attendance at the speakings was good, and interest shown, and that it was ascertained that the Democrats had lost no ground since the August election. Mr. Pou's health is improving quite rapidly.

Otho Wilson is now an official hanger-on at the revenue department here. It takes quite a lot of "pie" to satisfy him, and to keep him quiet he must have steady work as a storekeeper and gauger.

The following is the list of Congressional nominees of the parties, so far as yet named, and is convenient for reference:

First District, John H. Small, D; Second District, Claude Kitchin, D; Joseph J. Martin, R.; 3rd, Chas. R. Thomas, D., John G. Fowler, R.; 4th, E. W. Pou, D., J. A. Giles, R., J. J. Jerkin, P.; 5th, W. W. Kitchin, D., J. R. Joyce, R.; 6th, John D. Bellamy, D.; 7th, T. F. Kluttz, D., J. Q. Holton, R., A. B. Shuford, P.; 8th, J C. Buxton, D., Spencer Blackburn, R.; 9th, W. T. Crawford, D., James M. Moody, R.

Martin, in the second, says he does not yet know whether he will play in the field or not. Forker is endward by the republicans in the 3rd. Most democrats are expecting Giles to come down in the 4th, in favor of Jenkins. Some expect Holton to drop and in favor of Shuford in the 7th.

At the Baptist Tabernacle here Sunday the pastor, Rev. Dr. Hubbard, preached a sermon which dwelt on the subect "Christian Service" and latter-day miracles. He declares the day of miracles is not past; that the church has left miracles, but that the latter have not left the church. He called attention to the fact that on the day President Wingate, of Wake Forest College, died he saw the Savior personally and talked with him eight hours. Mr. N. B. Broughton spoke today about this miracle and said it unquestionably occurred, was no halluciation and that there was no doubt of it.

Coincidences are often very great indeed. Saturday in one of Scott's novels, something was read about one of the characters being a "Flint." Yesterday in the old cemetery here a tombstone was noticed over the grave of one of the Scotch stone cutters who was employed on the capitol and who died here, and on this is the inscription, "He died a Flint." The "Flints" got their name from their obduracy, they being members of an organization.

Among the arrivals here are T. J. Jarvis and Harry Skinner, of Greenville, who are attending the Supreme Court.

MARY, THE FIRE-DOG.

She Is a Recognized Member of the Memphis Department.

Mary is only a yaller dog, but, like many another heroine who has not a fine coat to her back, she has many sterling qualities of head and heart. Mary belongs to Capt. Roga's fire squad that is stationed on Poplar street, Memphis, Tenn. Mary has been in the fire service for over three years, during which time she has attended every fire in Memphis. When the fire gong rings Mary knows it means a run, and she stations herself under the wagon. She can climb a ladder as well as any fireman and she has had some thrilling experiences in her day. Mary comes by her fire-attending instincts naturally. She is the daughter of Fannie, who for over ten years was a celebrated fire dog. Fanny has now retired from active service. She makes her home at the same engine-house as her daughter, and they are devoted to each other. Fanny, who is now 13, would still like to go to fires, but her prudent daughter prevents it by biting the maternal leg and barking.

The most idiotic of slang expressions is: "I don't think." It is so superfluous.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well, twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all, S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

CLAWING FOR A MARTYR'S CROWN.

It has been apparent for sometime that the Honorable Theodore Roosevelt, the vaudeville hero of the present campaign, is attempting, in his usual habit of appropriating everthing in sight, to lay hands upon a martyr's crown. Perhaps he got the martyr idea when he pursuaded himself that the country was crying for him to take the nomination for vice president and that he should sacrifice his modest expectation of taking the first place on the ticket next time, to his party's crying need of a present hero. The martyr idea as a campaign asset was thoroughly implanted in his mind the other day, when out at Victor, Col., some toughs made a demonstration intended for Senator Wolcott, and which Mr. Roosevelt quickly appropriated to himself. Since then he and his followers have been pitching their campaign largely on that "issue," and in the language of the esteemed Charlotte Observer, "paramounted" it. Having "paramounted" this issue so well the Colonel no doubt kept his eyes peeled for another.

This one came Sunday in Chicago, according to a great cock and bull story in the New York Sun of yesterday. Parenthetically, it may be remarked, this story was not reported by the Associated Press, a news gathering organization of well known habits of enterprise and industry, and was not reported in any special to such newspapers as the Washington Post and the Philadelphia Record. But the Sun had it alright and we may expect to see the tragic commedian "paramounting" it before the end of the week.

According to this story the "Governor" went Sunday to the church which he always attends while in Chicago, "the Trinity Dutch Reformed church on Marshal avenue, near Polk street." Here the Colonel is always called on to make an address to the congregation. But this time the pastor announced that it would be cruel injustice to call him, weary and sore from a strenuous campaign, to make an address, but he piously thanked God for the exalted presence and hoped the Governor would just stand up and shake hands. He did stand up and told them that some day he would come back and preach them a lay sermon from the text: "Be ye doers of the word and not hearers merely." This was all very plain sailing, but the lay preacher ran against a snag as he was leaving the church. The snag happened in this instance to be a newsboy, who, spying the hero, called out, "hello Teddy." This brought other newsboys, who, the story says, shouted and hooted at the fiery snorter until that individual thoroughly lost his temper and informed them. SOTTO VOCE, that they were "miserable scoundrels." This caused the youngsters to naively enquire of the Governor what he thought of a man who would shoot a poor Spaniard in the back? Of course the Sun paints this as a great organized outrage, inspired by Bryan teachings, and helps along the Colonel's efforts after the crown. We may expect fully a week of speaking on this incident.

And will the boys be on hand to hear that lay sermon regarding those who do and not merely hear?

From a neighboring exchage we clip this:

One man after another fell by the wayside last night, and finally five men lay doubled up in the police cells, helplessly drunk. Four of them were speechlessly intoxicated and as limp as rags; and the one man who could talk at all needn't have told his name, for he is an old offender who farms his children to a cotton mill and debauches as an old blackguard.

There is the half of many a sad story daily being enacted in North Carolina; the other half is the dwarfed, wrecked helpless children whose long hours of toil furnish money for the debauch and pays the fines for the brawl and arrest. And, quizzically, what's to be done about it? Oh, nothing. Whatever is is right because it has been and is. It's precedent. And whatever is not precedent is socialism or anarchy or reform or idealism, or such.

The "Auto-Truck Company" was organized some two years ago to control all the trucking business of New York city. It is said that Croker was the chief hand in that business. When boned about it the other day Richard informed an anxious public that he was not only not in that company, but in no other company. The chief now has larger ideas than those necessary merely to embrace the tricking business. He is gunning for the whole push.

After a weeks' persistent effort on the part of the powers to induce the imperial court of China to return to Pekin, that institution firmly refuses to do so. The court thinks it is just as well off further in the interior. It has learned that going to and from Pekin has become a dangerous business,

The assertion made by a Raleigh preacher yesterday that on the day before his death Dr. Wingate of Wake Forest College had an eight hours' conversation with the Savior is new to us, but we shall try to recollect the incident hereafter.

THE SMALLEST TRUNKS EVER SEEN WILL SOON BE IN THIS CITY.

Probably the smallest practical trunks ever carried are the property of the drove of baby elephant members of Prof. Gentry's Famous Dog and Pony Show, which will exhibit under canvas in this city, W. Washington and Ash streets, October 11th. The members in question are the tiniest elephants in all the world and are scarcely as large as an ordinary pony. They are considered to be the best trained elephants in all the land. Prof. Gentry imported them from India last winter at an enormous cost. They are more valuable than ordinary elephants on account of their size. They all possess superb dispositions; are great friends of the children, who will have an opportunity of having a ride on them and getting thoroughly acquainted during the show's stay in this city. At 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. Admission, children, 15c., adults, 25c.

FUN FROM FROZEN SEAS.

Whereas exhibited, including a whole most successful winter in New York City, the only trained school of Alaska Sea Lions and Seals bear living, amazing and amusing witness to Captain Woodward's genius, patience and magnetic influence as an instructor of the most timid of strange amphibious creatures. These polar pupils now form one of the rare attractions in the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Consolidated Shows, whose date of exhibition in Greensboro Saturday October 13. Provided with stubby, slippery filippers only, to supply the place of hands and feet, and naturally moving with the most ungainly efforts on land, it is really marvelous that these queer amphibia have been raised to the artistic plane of grotesquely sagacious mimicry melody and mirth. They have been taught to drill, smoke, pitch, catch, play upon musical instruments discharge fire arms, sing basso profundo ballad of the sea, and to successfully imitate other accomplishments of human kind. "Leo," the monster marine clown and mischief-maker, alone furnishes an ocean of fun. It is an entertainment to delight every one, from the oldest to the youngest.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to moke you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

IMPORTANT !

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1900.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

On and after October 15th, 1900, we, the undersigned, will do a strictly cash business. Our reasons are as follows:

1st. Absolute NECESSITY.

2nd. Laundry, the world over, is a recognized cash business and justly so.

3rd. Our accounts are necessarily small, and it causes an endless amount of confusion and expense to collect, besides losses each year in bad bills.

4th. All of our current expenses, such as labor, fuel, gas and supplies are cash, hence the stand we take is forced upon us. While we very much regret, in most cases, to exact the spot cash, yet we must treat all alike, and we see no other way out of the difficulty. We trust our customers will lend us their aid by stating when to return laundry and by being prepared to pay for same when delivered. Our drivers will have positive instructions to return to the laundry all packages not paid for.

We have on sale at office (for cash) coupon books from $1 to $5 which can be left at convenient place at home, so that on delivery of bundle the amount of laundry bill can be torn out by the driver.

VERY RESPECTFULLY,

THE SPEAKER'S GAVEL.

Fine Symbol of Parliamentary Law Presented to Mr. Henderson by Iowa Admirers.

When Congressman David B. Henderson raps the house of representatives to order he uses a gavel presented to him by the people of his state through Congressman Dolliver. The gavel is as pretty a symbol of parliamentary law and order as ever reposed on chairman's desk or thundered on stone to check parliamentary anarchy. The mallet's head is rosewood taken from the Reina Cristina

THE SPEAKER'S GAVEL.
(Presented to Mr. Henderson by the People of Iowa.)

Admiral Montejo's flagship, sunk in Manila bay by Dewey. The handle is of native osage, grown in Polk county, Ia. On the frontispiece is an eagle's beak, bearing a scroll inscribed "E Pluribus Unum." On the upper ferule are doves and a garland, and on the lower pictures of the battleship Iowa and the cruiser Des Moines. On one side of the head is the Iowa coat-of-arms and on the reverse Mr. Henderson's monogram. In the grip of the handles are inlaid 45 solid gold stars, representing the states, the star of Iowa being the largest. The three ferules of the handle are ornamented with wild rose of Iowa, the inscription: "Iowa, to David B. Henderson," and six raised ears of corn wrought in rich, yellow gold. The gavel is inclosed in a fine case made of mahogany and lined with silk plush, with Mr. Henderson's initials in a monogram of white holly. The cost of the beautiful gavel was met by popular subscription in very small sums.

AN IMPUDENT NEGRO BISHOP.

Says the Negroes Can Say Whether They Will Allow the White People to Remain in This Country.

Hamilton, O., Oct. 6.—The North Ohio African Methodist Episcopal Conference today adopted, after a sensational debate, a report declaring that "the sources to which many of the clearest heads and truest hearts of both races have hopefully looked for a solution of the so-called negro problem, namely the church and the school house, seem from present facts and indications, to give ultimate promise of but disappointment and utter failure."

Bishop Grant, of Indianapolis, discussing the report, said: "I am an American citizen; this is my country. I am not going around to ask the white people what they are going to do with us. We have reached the place where we can say we are considering whether we will let the white man stay in this country or not."

The battleship Texas is about to be passed upon by a Board of Survey at Norfolk to determine whether it is worth while to spend any more money on this obsolete type of ship. MONSTERS OF THE DEEP.

Swordfish and Two "Killers" Attack a Sperm Whale.

Two "killers" and a huge swordfish had combined their forces and ventured to attack a half-grown bull cachalot. It fell to the swordfish to lead off, and he launched himself at the whale like a torpedo, pointed direct for the most vital part. But a gentle swerve of the wary cachalot presented to the attack, instead of the vulnerable broadside, the oblique, impenetrable mass of his head.

The awful blow of the sword, impelled by the furious speed of the mass behind it, struck just before the whale's eye, ripping a white streak diagonally upward through the gristly substance covering the skull, but spending its force in the air above, while the great body following glided, serpent-like, right over the whale's head and fell helplessly upon the other side.

With incredible agility for so vast a bulk, the whale turned, settling slightly withal; then rising, lower jaw uppermost, he caught the swordfish fairly in the center between those mighty shears and cleft him in two halves.

A sideway shake of the great head, a scarce perceptible gulp and the tail half of that swordfish slid down the whale's cavernous throat with as much ease and rapidity as if it had been an oyster.

Meanwhile, the "killers" had not been remiss in supporting the spirited attack of their ill-fated coadjutor. One hung upon either flank of their giant foe, and worried him as dogs a boar. But their time had come. After vainly endeavoring by rolling and writhing to free himself from them, he suddenly changed his tactics.

Rearing himself majestically out of the seething eddies like a mighty column of black rock, he fell backward, tearing himself away from the clinging monsters. Up rose his enormous tail from the boiling vortex, and, descending like a gigantic scythe, literally crushed one of his aggressors beneath it, the sound of the blow reverberating like thunder.

The survivor fled, but the infuriated whale pursued, leaping, like a dolphin, half out of the sea at every bound, and, although we could not see the end of the chase, we had little doubt but that "killer" gladiator paid the full penalty of his rashness under the lethal sweep of those terrible jaws.—Golden Days.

DEATH CAME SURE ENOUGH

ATTEMPT TO DERAUD INSURANCE CO.

Miss Defenbach, After Securing $12,000 Insurance on Her Life Made Her Will Leaving Her Property to Her "Affianced Husband" and Directed That Her Body Be Cremated—And It Was.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—With insurance upon her life amounting to $2,000, Marie Defenbach, aged 23, died August 25, in a boarding house on LaSalle avenue, under conditions which the police believe indicate a plot to swindle an insurance company and two insurance societies, if they do not point to murder. Upon bench warrants issued by Judge Gibbons, three persons, said to be implicated in the case—Dr. August Munger, Frank H. Smiley and F. Wayland Brown—have been arrested. The latter is assistant manager of a detective agency. He was arrested today on his return from Virginia. The three men under arrest were arraigned before Judge Gibbons and in default of $15,000 bail each, were committed to jail. When Miss Defenbach died, there were three policies on her life, aggregating $12,000 all of recent dates, as follows: New York Life Insurance Company, $5,000; Canadian Order of Foresters, $5,000; Knights and Ladies of Honor, $2,000.

The alleged conspiracy has been investigated by a private detective agency by the attorneys and detectives of the insurance companies and latterly by the State's attorney himself.

Sunday at a meeting between State's Attorney Deneen and Assistant Attorney McEwen, on one side, and the attorneys representing the insurance companies and detective agencies, the case was discussed and it was decided to cause the immediate arrest of the suspects. The detectives believe that a conspiracy was concocted and that Miss Dafenbach was originally one of quartette of alleged conspirators. She had expected that her death was to be feigned and that another body was to play the passive role of her corpse; instead of that real death came to her.

Last April Miss Defenbach applied to the New York Insurance Company for a $10,000 policy. This was refused by the company, as was also an application for an $8,000 policy on the ground that she was not possessed of sufficient property interests to warrant so large a risk, although she was examined and declared to be in perfect health. In July Miss Defenbach succeeded in obtaining from the New York Company a policy for $5,000, and this formed part of the estate she left.

About the middle of August Miss Defenbach also secured insurance in the Canadian Order of Foresters to the amount of $5,000. About the same time she took out a policy in the Knights and Ladies of Honor for $2,000. Two weeks later she was dead, leaving a will which directed that a part of the policies should be paid to Frank H. Smiley, her "affianced husband," and that her body be cremated. Her death, at a boarding house in LaSalle avenue, was attended by the most horrible agony. Drs. Leonard and Schroeder, the latter representing the Knights and Ladies of Honor, were called. They refused to issue a certificate of death, but the coroner's jury later, and after the body had been embalmed, found a verdict of death from dysentery. The next day the body was cremated and the ashes were scattered to the winds. Without much delay proceedings were begun to recover the value of the insurance policies Miss Defenbach had left. Owing to the unusual circumstances surrounding her demise, the hurried embalming of the body followed the next day by cremation, payments of the policies were refused and immediate steps were taken to trace the woman's career during the last few months of her life.

An unusual incident was connected with the making of Miss Defenbach's will. On August 21, Miss Defenbach called at the office of a lawyer in the Unity building, named Johnson, and told him she wanted to make her will. Some days earlier Dr. Munger had, it is stated, told this lawyer a woman would call on him for this purpose and she announced she had come in accordance with the appointment. She told Mr. Johnson she wantedd to leave her property to Frank H. Smifey, her affianced husband, and then she went away. Two days afterward she returned and Mr. Johnson and Mr. Johnson had the will ready. It provided, as she had instructed, that after her debts were paid, her property was to go to Smiley, but she then wanted another provision inserted. It was that after her death her body be cremated.

This somewhat surprised Mr. Johnson, as he could not understand how a young and handsome woman would wish her body burned after death, but he complied with the request. He was so struck with the circumstance, however, as the cremation clause had not been in the original instructions, that he called in witnesses from adjoining offices as a matter of protection. Miss Defenbach then signed and executed the documents. Two days later she was dead. It was learned today that besides the policies taken out on Miss Defenbach's life, several others had been applied for. In each case $10,000 was sought.

It stands to reason that the court room is a fine place.

Confetti has struck the town and now the Fair can proceed.

Roscoe, the snake eater, the fellow that "eats 'em alive," has arrived and is stationed at the Midway on the Fair grounds.

All visitors to the Fair are invited to call at the W. C. T. U. booth and rest. An abundance of free ice water will be kept on hand.

All Knights of Pythias are invited to attend the reception to be given by Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, in K. of P. hall tomorrow night. Each guest is invited to accompany a lady.

The weather will not interfere with the concert and the play, "The Sleeping Car," to be presented at the Academy of Music tonight. The curtain will ring up promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

The Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union of South Greensboro will meet at Mrs. G. T. Glascock's on Asheboro street, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. A good attendance, both of members aud others interested young ladies, is desired.

JUST A SUGGESTION.

It Is Barely Possible That Utah May Send a Mormon Woman to the Senate.

It has been suggested that if the house of representatives deprives Roberts of his seat Utah will have an opportunity to vindicate polygamy by electing to the United States senate Mrs. Mattie Hughes Cannon. This distinguished lady has already been a state senator—or should one say senatrix?—and has acquitted herself with no small credit in a legislative capacity. As is well known, she holds steadfastly by the early tents of the Latter Day Saints. It is obvious that sharing the cares of housekeeping must give a woman more time to devote to public duties.

George Frisbie Hoar, a high authority on such matters, has offered an opinion to the effect that nothing in the constitution forbids the admission of women to the senate of the United States. In three states of the union—Wyoming, Colorado and Utah—women have all the voting rights that men possess, and there is no reason why those sovereign commonwealths should not choose women senators if they feel like doing so.

Indeed, it cannot be doubted that the presence of a few bright and charming matrons on the floor of the upper house would lend variety and a decided piquancy to the legislative proceedings. Simple architectural alterations would provide separate cloakrooms, and a judicious reform in committee-rooms would do away with the surreptitious whisky bottle and the unwholesome cigar.

One can even imagine a gallery reserved for women senators' husbands from which the latter might listen to the oratorical efforts of their spouses while, perchance, waiting sleepily for a tedious night session to draw to a close.

As for Utah, that state has a vacant place in the senate just now, and the suggestion above offered would thus be practicable.

The largest library of small books in the world belongs to a Frenchman, who boasts that he can pack 700 of his pocket editions in a single portmanteau.

Bird's Nest on Sheep's Back.

What is certainly an odd occurrence is reported from Michigan. While a farmer was shearing a sheep, a little brown egg fell from the fleece and broke on the floor. The shearer investigated and found a bird's nest on the sheep's back, so constructed that with ordinary treatment the eggs could not roll out; but the bird had not figured on the clipping of the wool. The nest, of course, was warmer than the ordinary kind would have been; but how the mother bird could distinguish which of the flock of sheep bore her nest is a difficult question to answer.
